

Just a brief note: We did not make a board presentation since last year was considered a trial for the district.

Our official statement to the press is:

We believe that as a small-sized school, we can monitor our students well enough to be proactive in directing parents to community resources for help.

Ron Teater, Principal
West Burlington Jr./Sr. High