

The Reporter (Fond du Lac, Wisconsin)
August 23, 2006 Wednesday

We got your mail
The Reporter Staff

Re Chronic illness on rise

I'll bet Leslie McGuire was just tickled pink by the article promoting her bogus program, Teen Screen.

This program does nothing but line the pockets of the drug companies, McGuire and Teen Screen.

Psychiatrists make up these phony "mental illnesses" so they can prescribe expensive treatments that include heavy drug prescriptions.

Shame on you for promoting such criminal activities.

Lelia Culpepper

Houston, Texas