Dr. Ramsay contracted with Lykes Memorial Hospital to provide doctors for their emergency room. The nature of this agreement was merely to run the schedule and make sure a doctor was covering the E.R. Doctors were selected by Lykes Memorial Hospital and put on the E.R. panel.

Insured party dove into a shallow stream and broke his neck. He was taken to Lykes Memorial Hospital E.R. for treatment and alleged malpractice by the E.R. panel doctor that treated him. Injured party's injury resulted in quadriplegia. E.R. panel doctor not directed by Dr. Ramsay. Dr. Ramsay did not treat injured party. Judge finally granted Summary Judgment in Dr. Ramsay's favor.
